

4240 A Bronzeville Tale

It would be wonderful if you could meet someone fall in love and live happily ever after. Unfortunately, we live in a world where we have to experience pain and hurt in order to ironically appreciate, and acknowledge the joys of love. It is through these times that an emergency break up survival kit needs to be close at hand. We plan for death with insurance, plan for careers, marriage, but rarely do we plan for an unexpected break-up or rift within our relationships. 4240: A Bronzeville Tale is an unpredictable novella that details a young woman's journey to discover herself as she loses love and finds a renewed love for herself as she is challenged by her heart versus intellect. With an added bonus to support readers for those just in case break glass moments in life.
