

What Does God Look Like?: A Journey to the Other Side

For several years, a mother has a recurring dream her son is drowning. She always awakens in time to save him. Then one day she learns her husband has drowned while boating with their son. The true meaning of the dream will haunt you forever. What Does God Look Like? A Journey to the Other Side is the inspirational true story of a young boy's out-of-body experience shared with his father and their joint meeting with God. This story begins with an ill-fated father-son fishing trip that ends in disaster, and sends the father and son through a velvet tunnel into the bright light of God's presence. Once there they are told there has been a mistake because their souls had clung together on the journey. Only one person was supposed to stand before God. Instead, there was a father and a son. How God resolved the mistake is at the core of this story. The book traces Dickerson's life after his return from the other side, as he works to carry out God's mandate. The story also tells of several of the author's near-death experiences, and includes the story of an angel who visits a Mississippi hospital to give blood for him in an emergency situation and then disappears, leaving hospital officials, family, and police scratching their heads because no one could ever locate the man again. What Does God Look Like? A Journey to the Other Side will strengthen the faith of believers and challenge the arguments of non-believers. Most importantly it provides an eye-witness account of what readers will experience when their turn comes to cross over to the other side. From a life after life experience as a young boy where he saw the face of God, Dickerson tells the deeply moving story of his own efforts through careers in journalism and social work to work his way back to God. Much of his story is lived out within the mysteriously beautiful and terrifying land of the Mississippi Delta and is a remarkably touching story of one mans attempt to be faithful to a God who had given him life beyond death for purposes that would take a lifetime to unfold. The Right Reverend Duncan M. Gray III, Episcopal Bishop of Mississippi (retired)
