

Aspects of Rotherham: v. 2: Discovering Local History

Following the highly successful Aspects of Rotherham which sold out within two months of publication Wharncliffe Publishing Limited are proud to publish Volume Two in the collection of independently penned studies of Rotherham and its surrounding district. As enthusiasm for local history and family history continues to grow, archives, record offices and local studies libraries are busy as never before and Aspects of Rotherham 2 presents a further 14 studies and articles on a wide variety of subjects by local writers.
