

Letters from the Front

The first front that has the worlds attention is being fought in the sands of the Middle East. The second battle rages in the heavenly realm. And the third, and perhaps the most subtle, is being fought in the theater of the human mind. Like it or not, every one of us is directly affected by each of these battles. In this collection of twelve letters, author Keith Shealy touches on many practical ways for a more effective and victorious life in Jesus Christ during these turbulent times.
