

Circle of Change

Kim is in his last year of high school and just hopes to make it through the year without running into any gay bashing. The thing is, Kim is not only gay, he's transgender, too. Things get even more complicated when college student Dash joins Kim's mother's coven. Dash is immediately attracted to Kim and they wind up going out together, but when Kim reveals he's trans, Dash reacts badly. With all the other things going on in their lives, will Kim and Dash be able to try again and find happiness with each other?
