

DEATH IS BEAUTIFUL

When I think what is life and what does it have to offer, I see nothing. Is like my life have already been planned and there is nothing I can do to change it, the harder I try the in the end I lose everything, I dont believe in curse but I believe everything happens for a reason. The things I went through in my life made me think about life for over three years and I think I have found learned some interesting facts. Trying to fit in but feels like I have no place in this world, thinking I was here by accident?
