

My Following Jesus Journal

This journal is for you to record your day to day experiences of the words, presence, and power of God in your life. It has plenty of space for you to write or draw your thoughts and experiences down. It has quotes on every page to prompt you and each week ends with inspirational photos. When we write down our experience something powerful happens. We open our lives to run with the whispers (and shouts) of God in our life. You will find more revelation comes as you steward well the revelation you already have. God loves to give more to those who are faithful with what they have. May you be incredibly blessed as you record Gods goodness in this journal.
