

Come Dance With Me (A Back Beyond Paranormal Romance) (Volume 1)

Suzy Wanamaker the current archivist for The Family is fascinated by the new owner of Port Granges General Store. He's tall, dark and oh, so handsome. His obvious concern for his lovely, troubled teenage daughter only increases Jared's appeal for nothing is more important than family. Combine that sensitivity with a love of dancing, easy humor, and a smile that makes her heart do flip flops in her chest and Suzy quickly finds herself smitten. Jared Owens doesn't know quite how to take the quirky woman who feels so amazing in his arms when they dance. Everyone says the women in The Family are strange but there's something so engaging in Suzy's pert laughter, twinkling eyes and odd behavior. Maybe she can help him figure out what is causing his daughter's nightmares. Something frightening is at work in their lives and Suzy may be just the key to discovering what it is. The small town of Port Grange, Connecticut, has a long and comfortable history. Many of the founding families still live and prosper in this close-knit New England town. One prominent family has known such notoriety that they've come to be known simply as The Family. For centuries it's been no secret that there is something peculiar about the women in The Family. Some of them have talents that occasionally make them targets of the mysterious, the ghost-like, the odd and the downright bizarre. These women also attract strong, sexy men who are willing to stand up to the sinister forces in their lives, displaying courage in the face of the unknown. When they struggle to resolve the shadowy forces at work in their lives, their caution is to be careful and to always, always look behind you.
