

What the Doctor Ordered: Gay Romance (Gay Romance Best Seller)

The Hottest Gay Romance Story Devin is a medical student who feels like his life isn't going anywhere. When a mysterious person steps in and offers him a chance to intern with the infamous George Wilson, he takes the offer immediately. He doesn't really think it'll work, but after nailing the interview, he soon starts to work for the man. Things immediately change between both of them, the tension growing, and soon Devin feels desires he didn't have before. But what could this mean for them? Would Devin be able to finally hold a relationship with someone? George also has a past of his own that is not only hard to swallow, but also one that is hard to deal with. Will the two of them realize their feelings and express their love for one another? Or will the worry of keeping a professional relationship stop them from doing so and preventing them from possibly taking things further? Free Book Club Included? Check Out The Free Books Included!
