

Godly On-Time Devotions

God will never go against our choices. He gave us free will! Either we allow the righteousness of God to move and shape us, or our carnal nature will. And trust me, the world sees and knows the difference! In order to journey on our Christian walk, we have to build on the foundation which is laid. The word of God does just that. We have to employ ourselves with the word of God and be empowered to live life to the fullest. Being encouraged is one way to becoming empowered daily. Different revelations were taken from my daily journal, compiled to encourage others to continue fighting the good fight of faith. Never look at what we see with our natural eyes, but what is not seen which is eternal in the heavens.
