

Interlude in Umbarger: Italian POWs and a Texas Church

Interned in a camp in the Texas panhandle, more than 3,000 Italian POWs spent the last years of World War II an ocean away from their family and friends. A handful of men in camp were artists, and it was this small group of prisoners who struck a deal with the priest of a nearby Catholic church. In exchange for a home-cooked meal each noon, the artists agreed to decorate the plain church with murals and carvings. This compassionate story of courage and kindness is as enduring as the artwork that still graces the walls of a modest Catholic church in a tiny Texas town.
