

A River of His Forgiveness: Rediscovering the depths of His love...

The old covenant was based on observance, whereas the New Covenant is based on experience. In A River of His Forgiveness, we take a journey from the inner struggle of observance into the freedom and joy of experience. Our transformation, of letting go of whatever has bound us into a people of complete abandonment to His love, is only experienced in Christ's forgiveness. We, the Body of Christ, have endured distress in our lives long enough. We have now stepped into a move of Holy Spirit's demonstration of the forgiveness of Jesus Christ touching deep places in our lives to remove the burdens of trauma. The triumph of Christ is being staked at the center of our hearts where pain once ruled. The forgiveness of Jesus is so comprehensive that all contentions must now bow to His completed generosity. Where loss has become our gain, His forgiveness provides His generosity through grace. The only entrance to this place in Jesus is accepting this grace. Forgiveness is central because everything flows out of forgiveness, and in forgiveness. This is how God has chosen to know us and how we know one another. Then he said to me: This water flows toward the eastern region, goes down into the valley, and enters the sea. When it reaches the sea, its waters are healed. And it shall be that every living thing that moves, wherever the rivers go, will live. There will be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters go there; for they will be healed, and everything will live wherever the river goes. Ezekiel 47:8-9

There is a river whose streams shall make glad the city of God, The holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High. God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved; God shall help her, just at the break of dawn. The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved; He uttered His voice, the earth melted. The Lord of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah Psalm 46:4-7
