

In the Confederation from the German of Johann David Schoepf, Translated and Edited, Vol. 2 (Classic Reprint)

Preface JTIH b-HAT I have already observed in the Preface fnt II to ie rst Part regarding the occasion and the purpose of my journey through North A merica, I must repeat here. In the circumstances I was unwilling, and unable, to set before myself a complete description of observables in A merica. Moreover, it should be borne in mind that the journey through Virginia, North and South Carolina, fell in the winter months, unfavorable for investigations in natural history or in ceconomical subjects, and there was no alternative. I shall hope, therefore, that the reader will pardon me if I do not gratify his wish for pleasing information on all manner of subjects. I bring these Travels to an end with my arrival in England. The numerous accounts of that kingdom and of other countries touched by me on my journey home would render mine superfluous.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
