

Naked & Bare - She has To Know that I Love Her

I kept trying to win Rhonda back for a year. She never returned my calls, but poured her heart out to Sarah, and of course I would hear about it. One night Sarah called saying, Mark, Rhonda loves you. Please call her and tell her how you feel, let your heart be free. If she doesn't respond to you, then I will understand if you let this whole thing go. I had gotten tired of reaching out to Rhonda. I loved her, but a year was long enough. I decided to pray (talk to God) about Sarah's request. I looked to God, and God showed me what to do and what to say. There is a scripture that says, For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discernor of the thoughts and intents of the heart. There is no creature that is not manifest in his (God's) sight: but all things are naked and bare unto the eyes of him (God) with whom we have to do. This book of poetry and prose is the response to Sarah's request. I have decided to appear Naked and Bare, hiding nothing. I have decided to expose my soul and freely let love run through my spirit. In my joy, in my pain, in my happiness and in my frustration, I will be fully exposed. If Rhonda accepts this ovation, great! If she doesn't then the matter of us will be concluded on my side as well. With God as my witness, I will write what I write. I will write quickly, I will write with power and I will write with a sharp tongue, loaded with humility, hoping not to embarrass myself. Naked & Bare, through the medium of poetry, I'm ringing Rhonda's bell one last time. I know God knows my thoughts, for he sees past the flesh to the intents of my heart.
