

Mad About Matthew (Among Friends, 2nd Generation Book 4)

Matthew Parrish always wanted to drive racecars just like his father on the NASCAR circuit and hes finally gotten there. Only problem is, his party boy lifestyle caught up with him and now hes sporting an injury from falling out off the second story balcony of a hotel. Unfortunately that means hes out for the rest of the racing season. Having nothing to do, he heads home to Holiday, Alabama to spend time recouping around his family. What he doesnt expect to find is Chelsea Tate, his uncles newest mechanic. Matthew is instantly attracted to the beautiful redhead who has the ability to make a jumpsuit sexy as hell. Problem is, Chelsea isnt as thrilled to meet him. No matter what he does, his normal charming ways cant crack the surface. So he pulls out the big guns and slowly she starts to come around. However, Chelsea is careful, she doesnt want her son falling for a man who wont always be around. But the attraction is unavoidable and its she who should guard her heart. When her son finds himself in jeopardy shell need Matthews support more than ever. Falling for and needing him become inevitable.
