

Nine Days in New York

British business manager Paula has never been lucky in love. She decides to move to New York City in search of a new life and hopefully...get a new boyfriend? But a fateful phone call from her brother Ben and his subsequent week-long visit inadvertently reopens old family wounds, forcing both of them to review their life and the choices they have made so far. Will they have enough courage to make the necessary changes to become emotionally available and find happiness?
