

Druid Hill Park: The Stone House and The Frame House

Druid Hill Park
The Stone House and
The Frame House

Kathy Moore Fitzpatrick

This book is about the history and occupants of the Stone House and the Frame House in Druid Hill Park. Architect George A. Frederick designed both houses.

The Stone House (also called the Superintendents House) was built in 1872 and was renovated by the Parks & People Foundation in 2014. The Frame House was built in 1871 and was razed in 1957.
