Excerpt: ... TUESDAY, December 22, 1837. Mr. Krebs, of Schuylkill, presented a memorial from citizens of Schuylkill county, praying that measures may be taken effectually to prevent all amalgamation between the white and coloured population, in regard to the government of the state; which was laid on the table. Mr. MAcr.AY, of Mifflin, presented a memorial from citizens of Mifflin county, praying that no change in the existing constitution may be made, which would create distinctions in the rights and privileges of citizens of this commonwealth founded merely upon their complexion; which was also laid on the table. Mr. Read, of Susquehanna, presented a memotial from citizens of Susquehanna county, praying that the civil rights, privileges or capacities of any citizen shall in no way be affected, diminished or enlarged merely on account of his religious opinions, which was also laid on the table. A motion was made by Mr. Doran, of Philadelphia, That the convention proceed to the second reading and consideration of the resolution, read on the 19ih instant, in the words following, viz: Ketohed, That the commissioners of the county of Philadelphia, be requested to famish the convention with a statement, shewing the annual cost of each of the state courts of justice in the city and county of Philadelphia, for the four years prior to the first dayof December, 1837, and the fees received out of the county funds, by the attorney general of the commonwealth, or his deputies, on the several criminal prosecutions threin, during that period. Mr. Doran said, when he offered that resolution, he did not anticipate any objection. He had believed that any resolution asking for information, would be at once adopted. But, as there had seemed to be a disposition to object to this call,...
