

Winged Decision

In Winged Decision, read about how the Centaurans came to the heart-wrenching decision to come to Earth in search of human partners. Meet Kendrick and Norana. Both centaur on their fathers side and human on their mothers, they are deeply in love and engaged to be married. It is only after an upsetting discovery that they realize love isn't always enough of a reason to stay together. Lapith threats abound and devastate a small city. A son has to confront his fathers harsh expectations and realize that the course he set out for his life is no longer attainable. An entire race must deal with a potentially crippling loss of identity. And through it all, two lovers navigate through a relationship that simultaneously sustains and destroys them both. Told almost exclusively from Kendrick's perspective, this prequel offers insight into a difficult choice that sets the events in motion for Winged Descent.
