

Report of the Proceedings of the Congress of the Pan-American Federation of Labor (Classic Reprint)

Gv Sthe right of asylum in America for political offenders in Mexico all of it uj) to the Carranza government the protest against the Carranza decree and all that these are a few of the events which simply I want to name specifically as some of the incidents to show the activity and the sincerity of purpose and the accomplishments of the labor movement to work for the right all the time. It was soon learned, as we had our conferences with the representatives of the Mexican revolutionary movement, and then the Mexican labor movement I say it was soon learned that if we wanted to have an effective movement, it would be necessary to have the representatives of labor of all the American countries. And the first conference of a general character of the representatives of labor of the Pan-American countries, was held in Laredo, Texas, November, 1918. There, at Laredo, November, 1918, the plan for the conference was held and the plan laid the establishment of the Pan American Federation of Labor. And this is actually the second not the first it is the second conference of the delegates representing the Pan-A merican labor movements. Now, just a word we dont know what the future holds in store for the world. The great war in Europe has come to an end, except technically, until the Treaty of Peace shall have been ratified by the various countries, including our own we are still practically at war witrn Germany. The American Federation of Labor at its recent convention declared in favor of the endorsement and ratification of the Treaty of Peace as signed at Versailles a few weeks ago. The peace terms, the covenant for the establishment of a League of Nations, the draft convention for labor, and the labor charter, have been approved of by a vote of nearly three millions to forty thousand. Now, in the convention we did not claim for that treaty the draft
