

Weeping Venice

In life, we never know what is going to happen to us. We can guess and we can plan for years. Sometimes we set goals and even lay out a life map. However, things never go exactly as we have envisioned inside of our imagination. When we dream we do not dream of the unknown surroundings that can take us by surprise. You do not know what tomorrow may hold. We have no guarantees. Every heartbeat and every breath we take are a gift from god. We are fragile, but special beings. Every one of us, from the good to the bad. After all, we were created in our fathers image. Outside circumstances affect each individual in different ways. Sometimes we are quick to criticize and condemn. We often say, If I was her I would not have done it that way. We point our fingers in disgust. Our mouths are open, ready to retaliate with judgment. Oh, I would never do such a thing as that! but maybe you would. Yes, maybe you would. Given the right set of circumstances you just might realize that you are not who you thought you are! So now, I invite you to come with me on a journey of two different womens lives. This is a story of mistakes, true love, and gods great mercy and forgiveness. Meet Josephine and Lucia. Take a walk inside of their shoes and decide for yourself, just maybe you would.
