Excerpt: ... CHARLES ELLIOTT PECNS MEMORIAL COLLECTION SPEECH OF HON. J. COLLAMER, OF VERMONT, OS SLAVERY IN THE TERRITORIES. DELIVERED IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES, MARCH 8, 1860. The Senate having resumed the consideration of the following resolutions, submitted by Mr. Brown on the 18th of January: Resolved, That the Territories are the common property of all the States, and that it is the privilege of the citizens of all the States to go into the Territories with every kind or description of property recognized by the Constitution of the United States and held under the laws of any of the States, and that it is the constitutional duty of the law-making power, wherever lodged, and by whomsoever exerciaed, whether by the Congress or the Territorial Legislature, to enact such laws as may be found necessary for the adequate and sufficient protection of such property. Resolved, That the Committee on Territories be instructed to insert, in any bill they may report for the organization of new Territories, a clause declaring it to be the duty of the Territorial Legislature to enact adequate and sufficient laws for the protection of all kinds of property, as above described, within the limits of the Territory, and that, upon its failure or refusal to do so, it is the admitted daty of Congress to Interpose and pass such laws. The question is on the amendment of Mr. Wilkinson, to strike out all after the word resolved, where it first occurs, and insert the following: That the Territories are the common property of the people of the United States; that Congress has full power and authority to pass all laws necessary and proper for the government of such Territories; and that, in the exercise of such power, it is the duty of Congress so to legislate in relation to sla...
