

I Pray for You on Friday: Maryville Vineyard Edition

This is a how-to book, full of ideas for readers to peruse. You will be introduced to new ways to approach prayer and Bible reading. You will venture into journaling, the use of affirmations, and the value of Christian books to your spiritual maturity. Readers will be challenged to ask themselves, Is my spiritual diet appropriate for me right now? When was the last time I really heard from God? Examples will be shared of what's worked for the author to move her out of her comfort zone. She praises God for moving her to share these ways to energize your God-time. Readers will be encouraged to ask God to show them the take-away message. Every believer should take regular times, away from all others, in a solitary place to pray. We must pray for the same reasons that Jesus did. This is especially crucial as we face hassles in our workplace, pressures of decisions and deadlines, and family demands. Each of us needs to get alone, away from people, to pray. Are you taking time alone with the Lord in prayer? If not, you need to make a crucial adjustment in your life. --Henry T. Blackaby
