Rose Donatelli was born in Sharon, Pennsylvania, but now resides in Charleston, South Carolina. Although she became a Christian at an early age, when she turned thirty-five God showed her that she was His and taught her the importance of truly giving Him priority in her life. In February 2002, Rose enrolled in an in-depth Bible study (BSF) and attended for several years. On December 7, 2007, she started Faith Outreach Ministry by the leading of the Lord. The ministry supports missionaries from the United States going to other countries to share the gospel of Jesus Christ. Rose and her husband, Frank, serve the Lord at Seacoast Church in Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina. They have been married for thirty years.
