

Mirror, Mirror (Fat Fairy Tales Book 1)

She has skin as white as snow, lips red as a rose, and hair black as ebony. She also got curves that go on forever! But after years of being bullied and shamed about her weight, Neve Bianca can't see her own beauty. After Neve uncovers her stepmother's illegal activities, an attempt is made on Neve's life. Forced to flee, she ends up hiding out on a touring musical festival. There she makes a new friend, Lindsey, a little person who is full of self-confidence. To pay her way, Neve ends up working for the tour's burlesque show, something that takes her way out of her comfort zone. Her new friendship, her sizzling onstage act, and the attention of several very handsome men forces Neve to reexamine everything she ever thought about herself. Will this modern-day, full-figured princess live happily ever after? A feel-good fairy tale about a full-figured woman pursuing her dreams.

--Kirkus Reviews An easy, escapist fantasy tied up with a happy ending.
