

The Happiness Path: Your Mind is Your Paintbrush

You know those frustrating times when positive thinking just doesn't work? No matter how hard you visualize and affirm, impediments keep obstructing your path. If only you could find the sources of those obstructions, you could deal with them and get back on track. And you'd be happy again! The Happiness Path is your resource for achieving exactly this. THP won't tell you to ignore your emotions or forget your past. It won't suggest you be grateful for what's going on if it's not making you feel happy. THP explains that if you're not happy, it's because you're creating something adverse, whether you realize it or not. Then it gives you a step-by-step process to dig down to the source of your blocks so you can heal them. This always results in your energy transforming so it can create good in your life and the lives of others. When you change your past, you change your future. That's The Happiness Path! The Happiness Path is an update of Joanne Rodasta's Take a Moment and Create Your Life! (1997). Since then, she has constantly tested the concepts in both books in order to provide you the most elegant practice to follow to create experiences that leave you feeling happy. Also available is Joanne Rodasta Wilshin's The Happiness Path Group Guide if you want to start a group to support your practice. (Suggested!)
