

The Keeper of Secrets

Seven years ago, Prince Kells world was shattered when his father, King Jace, was killed in a horrible accident, and again a month ago when his mother announced her plans to marry the kings brother, Tobias, who has been acting as regent in the kings place. Kell knows his mother is doing this to appease the people who feel Atarnia has been without a king too long but he questions his uncles intentions. Fate brings him together with Morgan, a guard at the prison colony, Aarguard Keep, who believes the prisoner in cell ten knows something the regent wants kept secret. Morgan goes to the castle with questions; there he meets Kell, who has been looking for answers of what really happened to his father. Can this prisoner give them both what they want? Together they embark on a journey to learn the prisoners secret before it is too late.
