

The Perfect Love of God: Becoming the Bride of Christ through His Transforming Love

An elementary school teacher, Joan Marie Forness, was inspired in the mid 1970s to write a book about the Perfect Love of God. Before the book was even written, she hired a photographer to take a photo for the back cover. After he had taken numerous snapshots, she began to wonder how she would know which one God wanted her to use. As the last photo was being taken, her question was answered. She wrote, In a moment, my whole being was lifted in adoration as I gazed upon the Face of Jesus Christ. Joan Marie attended four colleges and was a credentialed teacher for fifteen years until she retired. After much prayer and preparation, she wrote and taught men and women from various Christian faiths and walks of life about the Perfect Love of God, which continued for over twenty years. Now years later, her faith, aspirations and prayers have been brought to fruition. In this simply focused yet exquisite study, her teachings guide you through the path of understanding and embracing the gift of Gods Perfect Love into your heart and every facet of your life. The journey through the Scriptures will draw your heart deeper into the Heart of God to discover and walk in His way of Perfect Love. By living in the Perfect Love of God you will be prepared as the Bride of Christ ready for His coming, and to receive the seven promises for the overcomer found in the Book of Revelation. This is the story of her love for God and love for a friend, and years of prayers for the Bride of Christ that they may be ready for the Bridegrooms soon return. A book you will want to read over and over again, the message of The Perfect Love of God will only become more enlightening and enriching to you each time.
