

The Secret of Guidance

God makes unmistakable promises to guide us. But to hear that guidance, our motives must be pure and our will surrendered. After gathering information for the mind, we must prayerfully await Gods unfolding of events. In The Secret of Guidance, Frederick Brotherton Meyer explains in detail these vital steps. He also emphasizes the value of spending a daily time quietly with the Bible. Subsequent chapters show how to deal with burdens in life, how to bear sorrow, and the secret of Gods presence. Pastor Frederick Meyer was born in London and as well as pastoring many churches was a frequent preacher at the Keswick evangelical conventions. Meyer challenged all to become workers for Christ and to lead a wholly Christian life.
