Lighten: Inheritance

After Jacqueline lost her mother, and her father went in prison for murdering her mother, the crime he didnt commit, Steven took her under his care. But her life with Steven was very hard, as Steven abused her, so she decided to run away, and met with Rachel while she was in the foster home, who took a good care of her. Trying to live her life while his father was still in prison, and still Steven and his children were making his life miserable, she decided to go to London for further education, and start her new life. As she was in London, she met with Jackson, whom she felt in love with, when she just saw him, for the first time. In spite of the love they left for each other, Jackson had a very difficult time to trust himself that he could fall in love, due to his mothers abandonment for prostitute, and his father who died, and inherited a very powerful ring from him, which protected him, and enabled him to talk to his fathers spirit.
