

Superior: The life of B.D. Eddie (Oklahoma trackmaker series)

The life of B. D. Babe Eddie and his family is typical in many ways of those rugged individuals who pioneered Oklahoma. The Eddie family came to Oklahoma when he was a young child, bring with them little more than a desire for the freedom to work and enjoy he fruits of labor. With his father and brother Babe worked hard. But he is atypical in that through his wisdom he accumulated substantial wealth which, along with his time, he began sharing with his church, community, and his homeland. He owned Superior Feed Mills and was on city boards including Traffic Commission. Planning Commission, Chamber of Commerce, Goodwill Industries and many more.
