

Beholding Transformation: Enjoying a Relationship with Jesus

We all desire a life of spiritual growth and meaningful relationship with God. Yet in the busyness of life, this desire can fade. Somehow, our time spent with God becomes monotonous and dull, one more obligatory task to check off the daily to-do list, rather than the powerful and rewarding relationship that it is meant to be.

Beholding Transformation stirs our hearts, rekindling the need to be in his presence beholding his glory, a glory that transforms. The book invites us in and explains how each one of us, no matter our struggles or faults, can truly experience personal transformation, intimate communication and a fulfilling relationship with the One who calls us friend. D.P.

Johnson masterfully holds readers attention with two ingeniously crafted stories, intertwined like dancers. The romantic story of Ronald and Norma is a brilliant and enticing invitation to readers to develop their own most meaningful romance, with the One who calls their names. Dr. David Nickles, Author and Co-Director of The Bridge International

In his soul-nourishing book, Beholding Transformation, D.P. Johnson helps us enjoy not just an hour or an afternoon, but a lifetime of sweetness with Jesus...I have found this book to be so freeing and sweet to the soul! Paul Cumbers, Associate Pastor
